COPYRIGHT POLICY

It is the intent of the Burnham Memorial Library to comply with Title 17 of the United States Code, titled "Copyrights," and other federal legislation related to the duplication, retention and use of copyrighted materials. Library patrons copying any materials using library equipment are solely and fully responsible for using the materials in compliance with relevant copyright law.

The Burnham Library will post this announcement at all public use copiers, printers, and workstations:

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS:

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. The Burnham Library reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

This policy applies to all copyrighted materials including non-print formats. Any non-digital content that is protected by copyright is also protected in a digital form. For example, print books are protected by copyright law, as are electronic books. Audiovisual materials without public performance rights are for personal and home use only.
